

MESD is serious about collections

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — If anyone needs to miss paying a bill this month, it had better not be the sewer bill.

Metro East Sanitary District Director Walter Greathouse is getting tough on those who don't pay their bills. His "get tough" policy might not make him any friends, but it is getting results.

Faced with rising costs for nearly every facet of the sewer district's operations and declining tax levies, Greathouse has begun cracking down on delinquent accounts.

Last month the district collected $25,367 in arrears from customers in Lovejoy, Fairmont City, Madison, Venice, Washington Park, commercial consumers and Caseyville.

During May, the arrears collections totaled $24,432.

"People think they don't have to pay their sewer bill," Greathouse said. "As long as I'm here, they do. I don't care who they are."

Greathouse said the district makes every human attempt to collect past due accounts before turning the matter over to attorney Andrew Miosky.

Once the matter is in the attorney's hands, consumers must settle with the courts, Greathouse said.

Property liens are normally sought against delinquent accounts. Often, mortgage holders pay the past due accounts to maintain a clear title on properties which have gone into arrears, Greathouse said.

"People used to think they didn't have to pay this bill,"

Greathouse said. "That's not fair to the people who do pay their bills."

Past-due accounts were turned over the attorney after MESD employees found it difficult to fit collection work into their regular work routine, he said.

Miosky's fee during June was $2,792.

The sanitary district's financial report shows a balance of $95,428 as of July 1. The district also maintains two certificates of deposit in two local banks totaling $975,000.

Library officials open branch bids

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Ron Coleman seemed relieved as he sat looking at blueprints for a new branch library Friday.

"It's taken a long time to get this far," Coleman said. "I've been on the board for 13 years and we've been working on this at least that long."

Coleman, library board president, was on hand Friday at 3 p.m. when the only bid received was opened in the main facility at 20th Street and Delmar Avenue. Four sets of specifications had been picked up by contractors, Coleman said.

PORTA-STRUCTURE Inc. of Bethesda, Md., was the only company to bid on the project.

Plans call for construction of the facility on library property at 2145 Johnson Road. Total cost of the project has been estimated at $600,075.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar last March announced approval of a $240,000 grant for the project. The grant will cover 40 percent of construction costs.

The library originally planned to use $228,045 from its building fund toward the building. The rest of the money, it was proposed, would come from private financing.

SINCE RECEIPT of the grant in March, the library's accumulated building fund has grown to $307,000. Now, about $52,000 remains to be financed and library officials express confidence additional funds can be obtained without private financing.

Coleman said the board is likely to call a special meeting this week to take action on the bid.

Specifications call for erection of a 3,880 square foot metal building capable of displaying more than 30,000 books and seating more than 60 adults.

FURNISHINGS and fixtures are all part of the building. The facility can be moved and installed in a matter of weeks, without extensive land excavation, according to Porta-Structure specifications literature.

The library board hopes the branch facility will:

- Increase usage and circulation.
- Increase visibility.
- Increase the library system's accessibility to the public.
- House a greater variety of materials at the branch.

- Improve children's and young adults services.

The facility's meeting room is to be made available for a number of groups interested in inexpensive meeting space.

More than one third the city's population is served by a 1,000-square-foot facility at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, which the library rents for more than $8,000 per year.

Last year, the library recorded a 36 percent increase in circulation. Increases in both adult and children's materials made 1985-86 the best ever for circulation.

"A lot of us have worked awfully hard for this," Coleman said. "It's finally beginning to take shape."

Venice park to issue ID cards soon

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

"I wish more adults would come out with their kids and try the slide," Anna Claggett, president of the Venice Park Board, said Friday.

"I've been down the slide and it's great. So bring the children and have some fun," the board president said.

HOLDERS of new Venice Park District identification cards will get a bonus in the future, along with some fun, Claggett said.

A 25 percent discount on park-related activities, including using the new water slide in Lee Park, was authorized by the Park Board at its meeting Thursday night.

A decision to revise the pricing schedule for water slide patrons and to issue resident ID cards was made by the commissioners primarily to boost use of the slide.

IDENTIFICATION cards may be obtained by Venice residents — children and adults — for 50 cents each at the Park District office, 323 Broadway, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

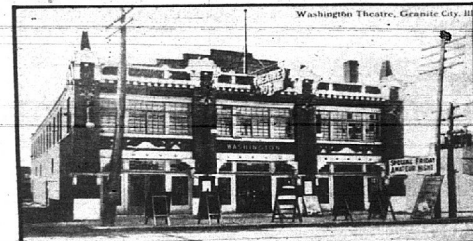

Proof of residency must be shown at the time a card is issued, the park board president stressed.

Such proof may take the form of a Public Aid card, a property tax statement or rent receipt, a utility bill or a valid driver's license.

PERSONS WISHING to use the water slide for extended periods also may take advantage of two special rates, which will be in effect every day, Claggett said.

Patrons may use the facility each day from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. for an unlimited number of slides for a total cost of $4, or $3 with an ID card, and from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. daily for a $3 fee, or $2.25 with an ID.

Postcard collection brings back memories

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — In the past, many families kept in touch by sending each other picture postcards.

And two Granite City men are collecting a part of that communication link — a link which has gone by the wayside.

Postcards containing scenes of early Granite City are pictured on two collections of postcards owned by Frank Greathouse and Al Pritchett.

POSTCARDS OF PLACES such as Commonwealth Steel Co., Hoyt Metal Co., Wagner's Brewery Co., Washington Theater, McKinley High School, Lutheran Evangelical Hospital (now St. Elizabeth Medical Center), McKinley High School, and Graham's Book Store picture them vividly in both collections, even though some of the cards date back as far as 1910.

The postcards in Greathouse's collection were sent between members of the Hartzel family of Granite City.

Many of the postcards were addressed to Lillian (Hartzel) Johnson of Panama from her sisters, Marguerite and Maude Hartzel. Others were addressed to

Sunday focus

James Hartzel, stationed on the U.S.S. Reed.

One postcard written by Marguerite to her sister, Lillian, and brother-in-law, Ira Johnson, read:

"DEAR SIS: — How are you both? I am fine and having a good time. Was to Anna, Lizzie, Maude's and Will's. Must go to Sadie's this week. Write soon to 2624 D St. (now Delmar Avenue).

The card was postmarked Sept. 8, 1919, and cost just one cent to mail. Today, it would cost 14 cents.

Another, more colorful, postcard said, "Harold is mad at Uncle Jim because he didn't take him to Egypt."

Greathouse purchased the postcards about four years ago at a flea market at the Harold Brown Recreation Center. He found the old postcards in a box containing over 300 postcards.

A HISTORY BUFF, Greathouse enjoys collecting postcards from the early part of the century, and has even started collecting political buttons.

"I like history so I try to buy things with a little history in them," he said.

Pritchett's collection contains postcards sent from E.C. Parsons of Granite City to her son, Roswell, stationed on the U.S.S. Helena.

E.C. was employed at White's Kitchen, which was located on 19th Street across from the Washington Theater in a postcard, written in the second decade of this century, she tells her son of her long hours at work.

"IT IS SATURDAY and pay day. I am about all in. I have been working from 6 this morning till 5 this evening. I am in hopes the day will come when I will not have to put in the whole day."

In another postcard, dated Feb. 9, 1911, she tells her son about her bout with the "grip."

"I have been having a severe cold, they call it grip. It first commenced with a pain in my lungs and then a severe cough."

Pritchett, who is interested in history and genealogy, was given the postcards by Ned Landers, who is E.C. Parsons' grandson.

MANY OF THE postcards in both the collections were written in pencil, a common practice of the time. But Greathouse and Pritchett enjoy reading what they can discern.

"I find it to be a challenge to try to ferret out some pieces of history," Pritchett said.

And looking at the pictures of old Granite City brings back memories for Greathouse, 40, and Pritchett, 45, even though some of the postcards are more than 70 years old.

"I don't remember all of it," Greathouse said, "but it does bring back memories."

Venice approves building permits

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

VENICE — Building permits approved by the City Council at its meeting Tuesday night included a two-room frame addition with a concrete block foundation, costing approximately $14,000.

Owners of the property at 305 Mercedia St., Venice, are Stanley and Patricia Jones. The building permit application was submitted by the construction firm of J. N. Ropac and Co. of Granite City. PERMISSION also was granted for construction of a one-room garage 10x24 feet at the home of James Mosby, 1126 College St., Venice.

A brick and frame residence, costing an estimated $57,000 and already under construction, was approved earlier.

Johnson and Rancher, 1319 Oriole St., Venice, are building a two-level residence at 632 Broadway.

THE HOUSE has two bedrooms, living room, kitchen-dining room and bath on the upper level and a family room, den, bedroom and bath on the lower level.

Tom Fields, manager of the city-owned McKinley Bridge, reported a total of 502,578 vehicles used the Mississippi River span in June.

The average number of vehicles crossing each day was 16,752, a daily increase of 504 vehicles compared to June 1985.

THE ALDERMEN discussed ongoing cleanup work in the community, including the removal of debris in alleyways.

Street Superintendent Tom Scaturro said trash placed by residents in alleys will be picked up this week.

It was suggested that youths working in the city's summer work program be assigned to clean up the Venice riverfront and boat launching ramp area.

Weeds need cutting and accumulated wood and other debris should be removed from the riverfront, it was noted.

Schneider buys printing firm

Super-Print, a retail printing business at 2011 State St., has been purchased by former Granite City newsman Gary R. Schneider and his wife, Janice.

The purchase from Alvin Barnes III, Latane Callis and Paul Schuler was finalized in late June.

Schneider was on the news staff of the Press-Record for nearly 15 years, the last three years as editor, until accepting a position with the Globe-Democrat one year ago.

At the St. Louis paper, he was editor of the living and features department, weekend magazine and TV digest.

Mrs. Schneider is the former Janice Townsley. She is a native Granite City and is employed in sales by ICT Inc., Inter-Comm Telephone, St. Louis.

They have two children, Adam, a sophomore at Culver Stockton College, Canton, Mo., and Nicole, who will be a freshman this fall at Granite City High School.

"Having been around print shops in newspapers nearly all of my career, I have always wanted to own a print shop and grabbed this opportunity when it came along," Schneider said this week. "I hope all my friends in the Quad-City Area will stop by and see me," he said.

Johnson, who leads his own orchestra, has directed stars like Dionne Warwick and Ella Fitzgerald, Bob Hope, the Goldiggers and Lou Rawls. He was musical director of the St. Louis Emmy Awards from 1977 through 1984 and the awards' live broadcasts in 1985 and '86.

The two-hour concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Wilson Park, 27th Street and Delmar Avenue.

The program will feature arrangements from the Fornaszewski library as well as hits by Count Basie, Woody Herman, Duke Ellington and Buddy Rich.

A special presentation of music from Johnson's recent record album will also be on the program.

It doesn't cost much to Stay Cool.

Ice Cream. Luscious, cooling and a delightful way to stay cool in the summertime. You can buy a triple scoop cone for about $1.80, and, if you eat it in 10 minutes, your cost of staying cool is about 18 cents per minute. That's a bargain, until you consider the cost of cooling your home for 24 hours...because the typical home can be cooled for much less than a penny per minute. Or about $2.10 a day. Any way you look at it, air conditioning is a good value. It's the cost efficient way to stay cool.

If you have questions about using air conditioning efficiently and affordably, contact your Marketing Advisor at Illinois Power.

ILLINOIS POWER COMPANY

Some home buyers face costly mortgages in northern Illinois

Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan is investigating the home mortgage industry in Illinois to determine whether businesses are engaging in unlawful practices in the course of accepting applications for mortgage loans.

First Gibraltar Mortgage Corp. has entered into an assurance of voluntary compliance with the attorney general's office to help resolve consumer complaints, and thus became the first such mortgage company to open its files to investigators.

Hartigan said subpoenas have been served on eight Chicago area mortgage firms that have five or more consumer complaints lodged against them. "We've been flooded with complaints from consumers who think they have been cheated out of hundreds or even thousands of dollars by mortgage banking companies," he said.

Within the last two weeks more than 300 consumers have contacted us to complain about home loan financing and refinancing activities. The most common complaint is that their financing application is not acted upon in a 60-day period, after which time the companies indicate financing is available, but only at a higher interest rate or only with extra points charged.

Hartigan, noting that his investigation did not disclose any unlawful conduct by FGMC, said the firm has made a good faith effort to resolve existing complaints. Any complaints that cannot be resolved by FGMC and consumers within 30 days will be submitted to the attorney general's office for mediation. The complaints stemmed from mortgage agreements signed in three of First Gibraltar's suburban locations — Libertyville, Itasca and Orland Park.

Hartigan said the investigation of various lenders focuses on whether companies are misrepresenting the availability of financing or their ability to process financing requests in a timely fashion.

"Lenders accepted numerous applications when mortgage rates plummeted, and then did not process and finalize the applications by the deadline, usually 60 days," Hartigan said. "As a result, many homeowners or would-be homeowners were faced with the choice of paying higher rates or losing financing for their home."

One young couple was promised a 30-year, $50,000 mortgage at 9.5 percent and two points, he said. At the time of the loan application they also paid an origination fee of $500 and a loan application fee of $250.

About two months later, the mortgage company said it could no longer commit to the original 9.5 percent rate. The couple reluctantly accepted a loan rate of 10.5 percent and four points — paying an additional $1,000 in closing costs and paying an extra $57 per month for the life of the mortgage.

Hartigan said consumers with complaints or questions about home mortgage companies can contact his Consumer Protection Division at 1-312-917-3580.

Rules proposed for vocational schools

The revised Proposed Rules for Private Business and Vocational Schools will be the subject of a public hearing on July 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Room 9-040 of the State of Illinois Center, 100 W. Randolph St., Chicago.

Purpose of the rules is to regulate operations of private business and vocational schools. These rules "seek to protect students' educational welfare by establishing criteria which private vocational schools must follow."

Recent legislative changes and revisions required by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules (JCAR) made it necessary to alter the current rules.

The proposed rules will be published in the Illinois Register.

for a 45-day period during which public comments are accepted and the public hearing will take place. Following a JCAR review and approval by the State Board of Education, the final version of the rules is expected to be in effect by January 1987.

Individuals unable to attend the hearing may send their testimony identifying the number of the specific rule in question, to Roy McDermott, manager, Nonpublic School Approval Section, Illinois State Board of Education, 100 N. First St., Springfield 62777.

Copies of the rules are available from Gary Anderson, Legal Section, Illinois State Board of Education, 100 N. First, Springfield 62777.

YOUR STARS

CANCER June 21-July 7 - If you are willing to accept the consequences of your actions, pull out all the stops. A good week to experiment. July 8-July 22 - So long as you are thorough and pay close attention to detail, whatever you undertake should go well. LEO July 23-Aug. 7 - Though work may seem like child's play early in the week, don't be overly encouraged. Things tighten up by midweek. Aug. 8-Aug. 22 - This is an ego-building week that allows you to strike out in new directions with great self-confidence. VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 7 - Don't rely on relics of the past to get you through the present. Rather, keep a sharp eye on the future! SEPT. 8-Sept. 22 - The time is ripe for giving new acquaintances a guided tour through the annals of your thinking. Speak out! LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 7 - The re-appearance of one of whom you were once extremely fond lends both nostalgia and excitement to your week. OCT. 8-Oct. 22 - Journey's end should prove as exciting as its beginning was. Rocky roads become smooth; the sun shines. SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 7 - Recent weeks enabled you to develop something of a sixth sense; this week enables you to use it well! NOV. 8-Nov. 21 - Depend upon yourself - and only yourself - for progress this week. Helpers may prove a hindrance now. SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 7 - Make haste while the sun shines! If you waste time now, you may not be able to recover recent losses. DEC. 8-Dec. 21 - You would do well to rearrange your priorities now - before present priorities begin to "rearrange" you! CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 6 - Even the saddest news has its glad side. What makes the week begin well also makes it end well. JAN. 7-Jan. 19 - The right kind of contacts made at just the right time carry you far on the road to your goal this week. AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 3 - Nothing is wasted this week. You will be asked to display your talents before the week is out. Prepare! FEB. 4-Feb. 18 - Don't wish too hard for the favors of superiors. Getting what you wish for this week may prove hazardous. PISCES Feb. 19-March 5 - Routine matters have aspects about them that may make them more difficult to deal with than expected. MARCH 6-March 20 - The congeniality of friends is not to be sneezed at. Accept well-meant gestures as your due; they are! ARIES March 21-April 4 - Permanent good is ultimately to come of what seems this week to be merely temporary progress. APRIL 5-April 19 - Differences of weeks past are forgotten in the excitement of partnership progress now. TAURUS April 20-May 5 - Only actions appropriate to the situation and circumstances on the home front meet with success this week. MAY 6-May 20 - Tact enables you to say just about anything you please with impunity. Take the diplomatic approach in all things. GEMINI May 21-June 6 - Make sure you have some time for rest this week. If you must overdo, do it on the side of relaxation. JUNE 7-June 20 - Exert yourself only slightly more than usual and results will astound you. Week's end brings profit and pleasure.

Storm forces 'copter to land

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

A severe thunderstorm which swept through the Quad-City Area about 5:30 p.m. Friday toppled trees and power lines and forced a medical helicopter to land in the 2900 block of Nameoki Road.

Police were called to help direct the landing of the 'copter at the SEMC parking area on Washington Avenue at 5:45 p.m. Friday.

A heavy downpour and wind gusts struck the area about the same time and the pilot was forced to land on St. John United Church of Christ property on Nameoki Road.

A police officer picked up a transplant team from the helicopter at the Farm Fresh Store, 2928 Nameoki Road, and drove personnel to the medical center.

Wind gusts downed trees in several areas, including the 2900 block of Iowa Street, 1700 block of Poplar Street on Louise Street and at 22nd and Benton streets.

A tree also fell on a power line in the 2400 block of Delmar Avenue and in the 1700 block of Spruce Street. A tree was uprooted and fell on the garage of Ann Janulavich, 2345 Rock Road.

Winds of up to 60 mph were recorded in St. Louis County and scattered power outages occurred. Temperatures dropped 10 degrees in one hour and by 6 p.m., a thermometer stood at 72 degrees. The high for the day was 92 degrees about 2 p.m.

Family computes

TWO-GENERATION COMPUTER INSTRUCTION: Mark Dittman, 7, and his mother, Janice Dittman of Granite City, learn to operate a computer together at SIUE. They participated in a special parent/child computer day camp held at the University this summer. The parent/child teams received instruction in computer literacy, introductory programming, and keyboarding skills.

Computer advises students

The ticket is a Social Security number. Then, presto, the students will see their college program before them.

The system lists degrees students are working on, courses they have completed, courses required for their degree and courses available to fill those requirements, said Ralph Halpenny, the systems analyst in BAC's Data Processing Department who designed the system.

The computer program has the complete college catalog in the system. At present, the system lists the 1984-85 and 1985-86 catalog information. It has been set up to include 10 years of information at a time.

Teamwork between the college counseling, data processing and registrar departments made the system possible.

Don Libby, a BAC counselor, said the system was designed so students can get the best advice possible.

"We are trying to be just as efficient as other service-oriented businesses," Libby said. "We deal in a service. The more efficiently and thoroughly we provide that service, the more likely we will have satisfied customers."

Transcript and grade point information on each student are also part of the system, Marge Fish, BAC's assistant registrar, said the system saves time and money. Grade points used to be figured by hand. Now the system figures them automatically.

Dennis Sparr, BAC's dean of counseling and human development, plans to add student history information to the system. If students want to go into electronics, the system could then help determine if their math skills were sufficient for success in that program.

The system also could be used to notify the Student Activities Office of a student who needs child care services, Sparr said. Automatic notices could be sent to departments to notify them of any needed student services.

BAC trustees to hear Army training facility needs

BELLEVILLE — Army officials are expected to present trustees of Belleville Area College Wednesday with an outline of training needs for a proposed Military Operations Specialty (MOS) training center to be located at the Army's St. Louis Area Support Center in Granite City.

The MOS training center, currently located at Fort McCoy, Wis., provides retraining seminars for military personnel.

A St. Louis area site is being considered because of its central location, easy accessibility and the advantage of having several existing military installations in this area.

Representatives of Belleville Area College met with Lt. Col. Robert Martin and others at SLASC last week to offer "assistance in any way we can," said BAC spokesman Kathy O'Dell.

Crider seeks Madison principalship

MADISON — The school district is still accepting applications for the position vacated last month by former Madison Middle School Principal Earl McClanahan. McClanahan resigned abruptly in mid-June after 26 years with the district.

ID cards

For shorter periods of time, the new rates for both adults and children are: Three slides for $1 or 75 cents with a park district ID card; 10 slides for $3, or $2.25 with an ID; and 40 cents for a single slide, or 30 cents with an ID.

THE SLIDE is in operation daily for the general public from 1 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Youngsters in the park district's summer recreation program utilize the slide Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. until noon.

"The month of June was a trial period for us. It was a whole new thing and we had to see what worked best," Claggett said, explaining some of the reasons for revising rates.

A series of "splash parties" also is being planned, Claggett said, with the first one scheduled last night. Attendance at future parties also will cost residents with park district IDs 25 percent less than the current $3.50 fee.

A CHECKING SYSTEM for clothing also is now being used at the water slide, with large bags being provided for this purpose.

The district has 60 young people, mostly college and high school students provided through the JTPA and CETA programs, who are working in the park recreation program, at the water slide and in park maintenance, Claggett said.

"We have adequate supervision for those using the slide," the president said.

Three pool guards and four park security officers also were hired for the summer months, she added.

It doesn't cost much to Stay Cool.

Ah, iced tea. It's cool, refreshing, and inexpensive. You can buy a glass for about 50 cents, and, if you drink it in 15 minutes, your cost of staying cool is about 3 1/2 cents per minute. It seems like a bargain until you consider the cost of cooling your home for 24 hours. The typical home can be cooled for much less than a penny per minute. Or $2.10 a day. Any way you look at it, air conditioning is a good value. It's the cost efficient way to stay cool.

If you have questions about using air conditioning efficiently and affordably, contact your Marketing Advisor at Illinois Power.

Maryville writers

Lewis and Clark park road to be blacktopped

Blacktopping of the rough gravel access road to the Lewis and Clark Historic Site monument is among projects on which the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) has received bids. IDOT has received bids on more than $2 million in highway and bridge construction projects in this region.

Blacktopping of the dirt and gravel road from Route 3 to the Lewis and Clark memorial near the Hartford (Cahokia) Canal in the Mitchell area has long been sought by area supporters of the monument to the western explorers.

The poor condition of the current road discourages visitors to the state-constructed memorial, supporters of the park have complained.

Barton Contractors Inc. submitted the apparent low bid of $244,379 to put down an aggregate base and bituminous surface on the .89-mile road to the memorial, which is on the approximate site where the explorers started their historic expedition to chart the Louisiana purchase. The advance estimate was $280,000.

The biggest project recently bid in this area is resurfacing of 7.98 miles of Route 143 between Interstate 55 and Interstate 70 near Marine in Madison County.

Maclair Asphalt Co. Inc. and Charles Mahoney Co., Collinsville, were apparent joint low bidders at $1,364,353 (the state estimate was $1,312,000).

Korte-Pocher Construction Co., Highland, was apparent low bidder at $415,000 (state estimate, $471,000) to replace the deck overlay and patch the bridge carrying Route 4 over Interstate 55 three miles southwest of Livingston.

IDOT also received a low bid of $24,118 from McDewitt Nursery, Effingham, to put up junkyard screening on Route 143 west of Edwardsville at BWC Used Auto Parts. The bid also covers screening for B Auto Parts on Illinois 203, southern Madison area. The estimate was $35,900.

For $74,950, Aylor Aqua Services, Dyersburg, Tenn., proposes to chemically treat five dewatering wells on Illinois 3 at the Broadway subway in Venice, I-55/70 at I-64, and I-64 at 25th Street in the latter location in East St. Louis. The state had estimated the cost at $68,000.

For $86,241, C.D. Peters Construction Co., Granite City, will do 1.43 mile of concrete pavement patching on Illinois 3 from I-270 south to Industrial Drive (Northgate Industriak Park) here. The state had estimated the cost at $93,200.

Jorgensons complete studies

Mr. and Mrs. Allen S. Jorgensen (the former Bridgett L. McNew) have just completed college studies.

Jorgensen received a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga.

Bridgett Jorgensen earned an associate of science degree in dental hygiene from DeKalb College, Dunwoody, Ga.

Allen's parents are Edwin and Ruth Jorgensen, 4404 Illinois 162. Bridgett's parents are John and Marleen McNew, 1168 Wanda Drive.

Both students graduated from Granite City High School North in 1981.

They were honored at a party June 28 and they will be going to Norway in December to celebrate. They have resided in Alpharetta, a suburb of Atlanta, since August 1983.

Bridgett and Allen Jorgensen

It doesn't cost much to Stay Cool.

A 5 pound bag of ice can cool enough lemonade for a family reunion picnic. It's inexpensive — only about 89 cents a bag. And if it lasts 90 minutes, your cost of staying cool is a penny a minute. That's a bargain, until you consider that you can air condition a typical home for much less than a penny a minute. Or about $2.10 a day. Any way you look at it, air conditioning is the most efficient way to stay cool and comfortable in the summertime.

If you have questions about using air conditioning efficiently and affordably, contact your Marketing Advisor at Illinois Power.

IP ILLINOIS POWER COMPANY

CUB proposes power rate cut

The Citizens Utility Board (CUB) has proposed a rate plan that it said would save Illinois Power Co. customers $5.6 billion by preventing the company from charging consumers for costs occurring at the Clinton nuclear power plant after 1979.

CUB presented its proposal in testimony filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) July 9. The commission is currently deciding how much ratepayers should pay for the plant, which the CUB contended is six years behind schedule and has $3.3 billion in cost overruns.

"It is clear that the company — and not ratepayers — should pay for mismanagement, overruns and bad business decisions that have plagued construction of Clinton from day one," CUB Executive Director Susan Stewart said. She said her proposal would save residential customers $107 a year and commercial customers $624 a year.

Citing the 1979 accident at Three Mile Island as "a turning point," she said, "if IP had acted prudently at that time, it would have cancelled Clinton, realizing that power from a nuclear reactor would not be needed and that its construction would be too costly."

"The cost of Clinton is 60 percent higher than it should have been, compared with the costs of other nuclear plants similar to Clinton and built during the same time period."

"Ill. Power began work on Clinton in 1972 at a projected cost of $429 million and an estimated completion date of June 1980. The current projected cost is at least $3.8 billion."

The ICC is expected to rule in the case by December.

Washington U. seeks elderly for study

"SHEP," the Systolic Hypertension in the Elderly Program at Washington University, is recruiting persons 60 years of age and over for a national study being conducted in 16 cities.

The program, sponsored by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute and the National Institute on Aging, is seeking persons with an elevation of systolic blood pressure (the higher pressure) of 160 mm Hg or higher and a normal diastolic (lower) pressure of 90mm Hg or less.

Locally the program is headed by H. Mitchell Perry Jr., M.D., professor of medicine, Washington University School of Medicine.

Though many studies of treating hypertension have been completed, this study is the first one that exclusively involves an older age group. At present it is unknown whether treatment with drugs to lower isolated systolic blood pressure is beneficial. The study not only hopes to determine whether treatment of systolic hypertension reduces strokes or heart attacks, but also to see if treatment will improve thinking ability and memory.

SHEP needs men and women who are in good health and have the appropriate blood pressure readings. All treatment, physical examinations and drugs are paid for by the study.

Illinois recruits to lead men's scholastic team

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following are series of articles previewing the Prairie State Games which will be held July 16-20 at the University of Illinois at Champaign. Stories about other sports and local participants will appear at a later date.)

By Scott Marion
Staff writer

COLLINSVILLE — If the Southern Region men's scholastic basketball team wants to adopt a theme song for the 1986 Prairie State Games, "With a Little Luck" might be appropriate.

Luck — at least the good variety — is something the scholastic team hasn't had much of in its two previous seasons.

"We've been 1-2 both years," said Bob Bone of Collinsville High School, who coaches the team along with David Lee of West Frankfort. "We had a much better team last year than we did the first year, but Phil Kunz hurt his knee the week before we went up and we lost a couple close games."

"So much depends on who's in our pool. In both years, Chicago (the Windy City Region team) was in our pool and they always have an excellent team."

Bone and Lee were unable to get several East St. Louis Lincoln players because they're committed to an AAU tournament the same week as the Prairie State Games, but they landed most of the other players they were looking for, including 6-9 Kunz of Carlyle, 6-3 Larry Smith of Alton and 6-6 Steve Bardo of Carbondale. All will play next season at the University of Illinois. The other players are 6-4 Monte Kuhnert of DuQuoin, 6-7 Jay Schaefer of Benton, 5-9 Tim Hogan of Granite City, 6-6 Tom Blasky of West Frankfort, 6-1 Steve Lacy of Marion, 6-4 Lucius Reece of Cairo, 5-4 Jeff Luechtfeld of Okawville, 6-4 Erik Griffin of Carrier Mills, 6-7 Rick Shipley of Centralia and 6-1 Todd Kroeger of Teutopolis.

The 13-man roster will be cut to 10 players for the games, to be held July 16-20 in Champaign.

"This is the best team we've had in terms of overall talent," Bone said. "If everybody stays healthy, we have a good chance of going up there and playing well."

"The thing people don't realize about these games are how good (the games) are. People seem to take them a little more seriously in the other regions — they usually get the best players around."

Six of the Southern Region players are still in high school, and Bone sees the Prairie States Games as an opportunity for them to catch the eye of college coaches, but he feels the games can perform another function for college-bound players.

"Bardo went up there last year and it surprised me how poorly he played," Bone said. "Then he went up to Champaign again in March (for the state tournament) and he fouled out early."

"This gives him another chance to show people something. If you've seen him play more than one game, you'll know what a good player he is."

Bone feels the Southern team has eliminated some weaknesses it had in the past.

"Smith, Bardo and Hogan give us a good transition game," he said. "Before, we couldn't get up and down the court against the people we played."

Kunz, Schaefer and Shipley are all good inside players. Last year against Chicago, we led most of the game, but in the last seven or eight minutes they started wearing us down physically and getting second, third or fourth shots."
